

Ephesians 2:8-9 Saved by Grace

- What does true faith look like in Ephesians 2:8?
- Why is it important to realize that our salvation is a gift and not something earned?
- Are you every tempted to believe that if you do something bad you have to earn back God's approval of you? What is this wrong?
- According to this passage what are we saved from?
- How should we view this passage light of Easter weekend?

Now after Christ died; He was placed in a tomb, which first was a grave, but then served as a womb, Travailing and quaking the day He was raised and brought forth by God to be handled and praised the firstborn from death on the day emerged He with power to save to the utmost degree.
